

April 2024 - Long Riders

Stage 1 - Unsavory Target Practice

It has been a long time coming, but spring has finally come, and the prairies are once again taking on a welcoming green hue. The boys have done a bang-up job mending all the fences & fixing up the ranch in preparation for the warm season. What you were not expecting was for the Littleville gang to cross your path as they traveled from town saloon all full as ticks (drunk) while you were patrolling the back 40! How dare they use your heard for shooting practice! Best fight them off before they send you to the bone orchard!

Targets 4 pistol, 4 rifle, 2 shotgun
Ammo 5/10 pistol, 10 rifle, 6+ shotgun
Props Picket Fence
Starting position: Centered behind picket fence / Hands on fence

Shooter says: "You've got me mad enough to swallow a horned-toad backwards!".

ATB, engage pistol targets: Montana sweep (1-2-3-4) from the left.

Engage Rifle targets same as pistol targets

Engage shotgun targets either direction, no double taps.

Stage 2 - Rabbit stew

Halfway back across the ranch your mare steps in a rabbit hole and breaks its leg leaving you stranded miles from the ranch house. Those furry bastards seem to be getting a wiggle on in every direction you look. This is not going to be good for business! Better dust off your trousers and heat up the pot. It's time for some hasenpfeffer!

Stage 3 - Outlaw Payback

You were pretty played out by the time you get back to the chuck wagon mighty hungry for some rabbit stew. From out of nowhere one of those blowhards from the Littleville gang starts kicking up a row and shooting off his mouth about how you ambushed him and his pards earlier than mornin'. From out of nowhere lead starts flying from behind the barn!
